Dear Nick,

Thank you for all of your hard work, and the efforts of your staff, in developing my firm's website. As a Class Action Law Firm, it is important to have an Internet presence with a high quality website so that the millions of individuals who we represent may obtain relevant and professional information about the attorneys representing the Classes in which they are members. SearchReady has developed and delivered this high quality website for which I have received numerous compliments. The compliments, however, are owed to SearchReady, for the content of a website can only effectively be conveyed by the high functionality, visibility and professionalism of the site itself, provided by SearchReady's exceptional services.

Very truly yours,

STONEBARGER LAW, APC
